Officers and roles 2018-2019
(last updated 24 April 2018)
Frequently-asked questions of the Faculty Office include "Who chairs the So-and-So Committee?", or "Whom should I contact about such-and-such?" Many of these sorts of question can be answered by looking at the information here and sending an email to the current holder of the relevant role. Though the email address is a generic role address, it will always be routed to the current role holder, or the role holder's authorised deputy in the event of absence.
