The Divinity Faculty Library
Application for borrowing for visiting scholars

To be completed, in its entirety, by the representative of the institution supporting this application:

Applicant’s details:
Surname: ____________________________________________
Forenames: __________________________________________
Permanent Address: __________________________________________
Email Address: __________________________________________
Home University/Institution (if applicable): ________________________________

Supporting and represented institutional details:
Institution/Department/Faculty or College represented: __________________________________________
Institutional address: __________________________________________
Applicant status within the University, or recognised institution: ________________________________
(e.g., visiting scholar, lecturer, researcher)
Date when applicant tenure/status is expected to end: ________________________________

Please indicate which category of status applies:
☐ (a) Person employed through the University of Cambridge, College or recognized Institution engaged in teaching, research or administration but is not the holder of a University office (see overleaf).

☐ (b) Visiting scholar or a person of similar status who has been allocated working facilities in a Faculty,
Department, College or Approved Society (see overleaf)

By signing this document, I certify that the above named individual is suitable for borrowing materials from the Divinity Library of the University of Cambridge. It is agreed that the department, institution, or college supporting this recommendation acknowledges the rights of the Divinity Library to levy fines without prejudice to supporting institution; in addition, compensation for any loss or damage suffered by the Divinity Library. This will only happen in cases were the visiting scholar or person has failed to pay fines, return books or failed to pay for the replacement of lost or damaged items, borrowed from the Divinity Library.

Signed: ________________________________ Date: ________________________________
Printed Name: ________________________________ Title/Position: ________________________________

If the applicant has not been issued with a Cambridge University Card, a University Library card (white) needs to be presented in conjunction with this application. All applicants are encouraged to contact the Divinity Library in advance of bringing this form in, if there are any questions or problems: divlib@hermes.cam.ac.uk
BORROWING FROM THE DIVINITY LIBRARY
For visiting scholars

Not more than 8 volumes may be borrowed, under such conditions as may from to time be laid down by the Learning Resources Committee at the Faculty of Divinity, by the following persons if they have been approved by the Chairman of the Faculty Board, Head of the Department, or Head of the College or Approved Society concerned:

(a) graduates of any university who are engaged in teaching, research, or administration in the University, or in a College, or Approved Society, or in an institution connected with the University which has been recognized for this purpose by the General Board in the consultation with the University Library Syndicate;
(b) visiting scholars and others who for the time being have been allocated working facilities in a Faculty, Department, College or Approved Society.

The Faculty of Divinity’s Learning and Resources Committee have asked the Divinity Library to recognise the following institutions and approved societies whose members may borrow books from the Divinity Library under the conditions specified below.

Recognized Institutions, (a):

Cambridge Theological Federation
   Cambridge Centre for Christianity Worldwide
   Eastern Region Ministry Course
   Institute for Orthodox Christian Studies
   Margaret Beaufort Institute of Theology
   Ridley Hall
   Wesley House
   Westcott House
   Westminster College
   Woolf Institute

Natural Environment Research Council Institutions
   British Antarctic Survey
   Institute of Terrestrial Ecology

Other Institutions:
   Cambridge Group for the History of Population and Social Structure
   Needham Research Institute
   Tyndale House Residential Centre for Biblical Research